The communications protocol applies to both the Agency's implementation of its legislated mandate and the promotion of the work it does. It will also support the Minister's accountability to the Legislative Assembly and to Cabinet for the same.

This protocol is not applicable to matters relating to content, including programming, editorial choices or journalistic independence.

i. For all non-contentious items that might generate media interest, the Agency lead will notify the ministry lead of upcoming communications plans and products a minimum of three (3) business weeks in advance;

ii. For non-contentious items which provide government messaging opportunities or involve funding announcements, the Agency must request approval of communications products seven (7) business days prior to the date required;

iii. Final approval is required from the Minister's office and will be sought via the ministry lead. If the Agency were not to receive comments or approval from the Minister's office or ministry lead within forty-eight (48) hours of the date on which the item is to be issued, the Agency should escalate a follow-up, noting that they will proceed accordingly;

iv. Non-contentious media responses are to be shared with the ministry lead on an appropriate and timely cadence (i.e., daily) who will circulate as appropriate to other individuals within the ministry. Contentious media responses follow the process below;
